

REFERENCE

We have been working with FOX Laser since the very beginning of the company, which nowadays counts 15 years. During the years we have created a friendly cooperation, because of one fact - FOX Laser can be easily described with two words – precision and speed. The list of the details made for us is huge and not mentioned here, but we may honestly declare that every order we made, has been performed correctly. The company is characterized as loyal and open-minded – from the ordinary employee up to the General Manager and owner.

The fast expansion of FOX Laser can be easily described with the progressive and effective business plan and technical awareness of the company. The successful business is a consequence of well structured and progressive staff, which has an infinite desire to evolve and develop.

We have had the possibility to see third party attitude regarding FOX Laser way of working and the result is positive assess.

We believe in FOX Laser's successful and productive future!

Sincerely,
